Welcome

Hello and a very warm welcome to our wonderful panto.

We have had great fun rehearsing for Snow White, the children have been brilliant and they are like a breath of fresh air with all their energy and enthusiasm; they have worked really well with the rest of the cast.

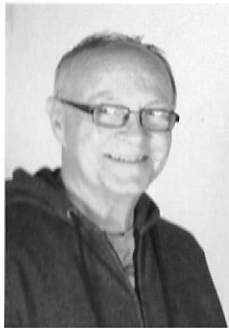

The whole adult cast have worked really hard and tirelessly to perfect their lines, singing and dance moves, but we could not do this without you, the audience. So a huge thank you to you.

Now sit back, relax and enjoy the show. Join in with the songs and don't forget to boo at the baddie and shout if you see any monsters!

Mandie Fairhall

Chairperson

Director's Notes

Mirror, mirror tell me true
Is this panto made for you?
Will the wicked queen prevail?
Only if Dame Dolly fails.

Will the prince be just in time?
Will the dwarfs forget their lines?
Will the monster be quite scary?
Yes, with Snow White's fate a query.

The Peacehaven Players' Christmas panto has been a fixture in the social calendar since 1998. This is the third version of Snow White to hit our stage. Some of the original dwarfs will be able to bring their children to this show!

We have been lucky to find another cracker of a script, courtesy of Graham Barraclough. The young people playing the dwarfs have worked so hard. For some, this is the first time they have performed in public. Stars in the making.

There are some people who I must thank in particular. Firstly, Lynne Holman and Roni Bromley for their tireless work as Assistant Directors. We continue to work closely with Harlequin Studios. Their dances are just stunning. Thanks to Janice Turner and her team. Thanks also to Mandie Fairhall, Roni Bromley and Judith Foot for choreography. The scenery and swift scene changes are down to Michele Harden, Alisha Berry and the crew.

Gill Veck designed the make-up superbly. The stunning musical and vocal arrangements are down to Anthony Wilson, our Musical Director.

Let's not forget your role. Panto thrives on its audience. Snow White needs you to care. Queen Catrina needs you to boo. And Simple Simon just needs to find the stage.

Visit our Facebook page for behind the scenes photos and to leave your comments.

Just try to get the tunes out of your head. Can't stop the feeling.

Tony Garwood - Director

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings and car boot sales, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.
