Directors Notes

Magic of the Musicals has been a true labour of love, and just as well because I've lived and breathed it since the beginning of this year. For this reason, my first thank you must go to my Husband, Andrew, who has never once complained and has fully supported my commitment to this Show. In fact he has heard the songs so many times, he now knows all the words, although not necessarily in the right order!

The concept was to showcase songs from musicals Peacehaven Players have performed over the last 25 years, but of course there are hundreds, so I decided to choose the most well liked. To give structure to the show, I put them into an order that reflected the era they were set in and created a musical time machine, beginning in early AD and coming right up to date.

My deepest thanks go to Georgie Bancroft, who has been so much more than an Assistant Director and has been a tower of strength throughout. Her organisational skills are second to none and she has also taken on the costume side of the show for which I am extremely grateful. It has been a pleasure to work with her again and pursue our shared passion for the musicals.

We have some wonderful choreography and my thanks go to Georgie Bancroft, Becca Huggett, Ian Sander-Cawley and Nasim Chilcott who have created highly entertaining dance routines.

There are 38 songs in the show and I hope you will love them all as much as we do. The cast have worked tirelessly to perfect each one and are waiting nervously back stage to perform for you. So without further ado, let me take you back in time to the land of the Pharaohs, not long after the Bible began, and we will begin our journey through 25 years of musicals.

Enjoy!

Panto
Christmas 23

Alice in Pantoland

A family pantomime in traditional style.

Alice is off on her travels again in a completely new adventure. This time she strays into the enchanted realm where all our favourite panto characters go in the down season.

If Witch Whey cannot be stopped, evil will triumph in all pantos. Only Alice and her new friends can defeat the evil ones and ensure good prevails.

Along the way Alice finds love and there's song, dance and loads of laughs.
