Director's Notes

There's nothing like a good mystery to bring out the inner Miss Marple or Sherlock Holmes in us all. In our play every member of the audience is invited to become a detective for the evening.

It's been five years since we last asked you to solve an intriguing murder. This time we are off to Benidorm in 1989, but the musical numbers are firmly part of the 1960s.

While deadly deeds are in play 2 miles off the coast of Benidorm, back at the Hotel Splendide preparations are under way for a delight of sixties numbers. My foot was tapping as I chose the songs.

In this show we have had to master accents from two continents. American, Spanish and various parts of the UK. I am so impressed with the way our cast have tackled this. I think they have done a really good job and I am certainly convinced.

Thanks go to all who have contributed to the success of this show. But in particular, thanks to Judith Foot who plays a major character, choreographed three dances, was musical director and did it all in a Yorkshire accent.

If you enjoyed our show you might also like to offer to help us to continue to bring you quality local inexpensive theatre by becoming a Patron (£25 a year), a Supporter (£5 a year) or a Volunteer (helping with front of house tasks for just one show). We need your help to continue to deliver.

The best of luck in unmasking the villains – but please don't tell your friends “who dun it”.

Tony Garwood

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We attend the Telscombe and Peacehaven Fayres on alternate years. We also hold an informal dinner at Diella's in Seaford in January and September each year.
