Director's Notes

Welcome to Old Peking!

We're thrilled to present "Aladdin" once again—this is the fourth time The Players have brought this magical tale to life, and my second time directing it. Each version brings something new, and we believe this may be our best yet! We hope you enjoy watching and joining in as much as we've enjoyed creating it.

This year, we've added imaginative projected backgrounds and video images to enhance the jokes, dances, singing, and storytelling. Special thanks go to Wendy Clare, whose amazing costumes and support as Assistant Director have been invaluable—especially as I also take on a major role in the show. Wendy has been instrumental in directing many scenes, and the show wouldn't be the same without her. Thanks also to Judith Foot and Nasim Chillcott. Judith has once again worked her magic to edit the tracks and get us all to sing them so well. Nasim has worked with tireless energy in creating a large range of props with such imagination.

We're delighted to welcome back the talented performers from the Bond School of Dance. We also introduce several new faces to our cast—they've all fitted in wonderfully and worked extremely hard, as have the whole cast.

Exciting News! Peacehaven Players are improving the lighting in the Community House Hall, thanks to a grant from the Lewes Community Infrastructure Level Fund. These upgrades will benefit not only our productions but also other companies using this space. Modern lighting systems truly enhance the audience experience!

However, we're only partially funded. If you'd like to help with this major project, please see page 13 for details, or pop your loose change in the collection bucket in the foyer. We'd be so grateful for your support.

Enjoy the show—and thank you for being part of our community!

Director

Would you like to join the Players Team of Volunteers?

Putting on a great show takes more than just talented actors—it's a real team effort! Our volunteers help out Front of House by running the bar, ushering guests, checking tickets, acting as fire marshals, or selling tickets, programmes, and raffle tickets. Most people volunteer for just one or two shows, and as a bonus, you get to enjoy the performance too!

Local theatre thrives on community support. Come be a part of our friendly team and help make the magic happen!

Our Summer show will be on Friday 5th June at 7:30pm and Saturday 6th June
at 2:30pm and 7:30pm
