Co-Directors Notes

This is the first time Tony and I have collaborated on a show and it's been a pleasure to work with him on Music of the Movies. As the title suggests, we've chosen well known and well loved songs from movies throughout the eras so there will be songs for everyone. In addition we have added some comedy sketches which relate to the era of the songs. The cast have worked tirelessly to perfect their singing and dancing and my deepest appreciation to them for their dedication. My thanks also to our choreographers who have created new and exciting routines.

We are very pleased to have the talented Bond School of Dancing with us again and they will be performing four dances. And lastly my thanks to you for being here tonight and supporting Peacehaven Players, we couldn't do it without you!

Enjoy the show!

Judith Foot—Director

Thanks need to go to all the cast members who have worked so hard to bring you this great show. It has been different working as a joint director for the first time but creatively a great experience. It has been a pleasure to work with Judith too.

As this show celebrates songs from the cinema, we have adopted a cinematic structure. The show is divided into 8 reels, each with a theme or representing a particular time-period when the films are set. We are even giving you an "intermission" but there is nothing "B" picture about any of the performances.

This is our first show in which we have used unique back projections for each song. This was only possible because we had the overhead projector installed in the hall. It was quite a challenge to produce more than 30 different "backdrops", and we made use of AI to help with the creation process.

The Players raised the funds to purchase and install the projector and are keen that other users of Community House will also make use of it. At least one community group is.

Costs keep going up for everyone and putting on a show has always been costly. We value the support that you give through buying tickets and making donations.

Please visit page 9 where you can find out how to give. No amount is too small.

Tony Garwood—Director and Chair of Peacehaven Players

Become A Volunteer

Could you join our team of volunteers? A successful show needs more than actors. Team members work Front of House. They run the bar, show you to your seat, check your ticket and sell you a programme or the raffle.

A big thank you to all team members. Most volunteers help at one or two shows.

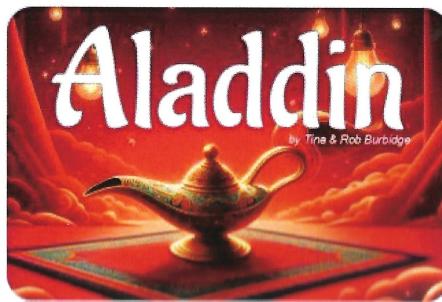

Aladdin shows in December are Thursday 4th evening, Friday 5th evening Saturday 6th matinee Saturday 6th evening.
